

Requirements & Cost

A Summer Missionary Intern must be at least 13 years old, finished the 8th grade, and a growing believer with a heart for reaching lost children for the Lord. Adults and college students are also needed.

He or she must be able to sign our Statement of Faith without reservation and be approved by their local church and the CBM state director.

The intern must attend a Bible-teaching church. CBM is a non-charismatic mission.

The cost for training school, teaching materials, salary, and other expenses is raised through deputation. A $20.00 application fee should accompany your application. We help you every step of the way.

I am interested in service with Children's Bible Ministries for the summer of 2010!

Service in Evangelism

Summer Bible Clubs are evangelistic neighborhood Bible clubs for children ages 5-12 running for one hour, from Monday to Friday, in each location.

Included are a Bible lesson, missionary story, memory verse, songs, and a review game. An invitation is given to respond to the gospel. Each Summer Missionary Intern team normally has numerous opportunities to lead children to Christ during the summer ministries.

During the summer there are other events such as the Children's Chapel at county fairs and our overnight camping ministry. These ministries give a wide range of ministry experience.

1796 were reached with the Gospel through last summer's ministry. 333 children received Christ.

"...Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God."

Mark 10:14

Service & Spiritual Growth

I grew closer to the Lord as I trusted Him daily in my summer ministry with CBM.

Discipline is needed for the Summer Missionary Intern Training Retreat. A love and patience for children and a moment-by-moment dependence on God in the midst of spiritual warfare is a must.

Christian fellowship takes on new meaning as you serve the Lord on a team of other dedicated Summer Missionary Interns. Monday morning prayer meetings will knit your hearts together as you pray for the children, the host families and one another.

As you see lives change, your life will change too. 2010 will be the summer that you remember for the rest of your life!

Service in Missions

Adults and teens will experience hands-on missions. You may find God's call for your life or just find out what God can do with a summer committed to Him.

Service Begins With Challenge

Summer missions with Children's Bible Ministries will challenge you in every way you can imagine.

As a candidate, you will first raise your prayer and financial support. Evangelism Saturdays, June 5 & 12, will equip even the most timid to witness to children. At our Summer Missionary Training Retreat, June 20-July 2, you will learn to teach the truths of God's Word to children, leading them to Christ and building them up in the faith.

You will teach four Summer Bible Clubs a day, five days a week, in local areas. You will have an opportunity to evangelize at the Howard County and Carroll County Fairs, Camp Hidden Valley and at other events.

Expect to see God do great and exciting work reaching thousands of Maryland's children for Christ.
